

KAIROS OUTSIDE COMMUNITY WEEKEND #13

Otyokwah Camp & Retreat Center
3380 Tugent Road
Butler, OH 44822

Friday, November 2nd to Sunday, November 4th 2012

Imagine if you will, that your son or your daughter, your brother or sister has made a poor choice and is incarcerated in a state prison. Yes they did wrong, but you still love and support them and pray for their change.

The hurt and aloneness you feel is with you every moment of every day. Sleep often evades you as you lay awake worrying about their safety, their comfort, and their future... because you love them so much.

Then God leads you to a weekend retreat where you meet others like you who hurt so deeply it burns one's soul. And through the community of pain, the intense sharing of feelings for these two days, you begin to see hope in God's love for all.

But it is the show of support of a larger community on Sunday morning and at the weekend closing on Sunday afternoon that finally convinces you that you do not face your pain alone; you are loved and supported by so many.

It is this powerful support with which you return home to face your life anew.

And the more of our community who put themselves out to be at the Sunday morning Manianitas and the Sunday afternoon closing, the stronger is the love that these women take home to support them in their lowest times.

This is the gift of Kairos,,, Agape love.

8:15 AM ~ FLOWERS AT DAWN
(MORNING SERENADE~ BRING FRESH LONG-STEM FLOWERS)
3:15 PM ~ WEEKEND CLOSING

Yes, we know it is a great travel distance for some of you, but as you well know, God is counting on you to help spread His love to those who are in pain.

For further information contact:
Toni Gordley at koc13_leader@kairosohio.org